Happy New Year!

Welcome new members, and welcome back to those returning for the 2025-2026 legislative session. As this new session begins, we wanted to briefly introduce you to the ACLU-PA.

The ACLU of Pennsylvania is a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization that works to defend and strengthen the individual rights and liberties guaranteed in the United States and Pennsylvania Constitutions through lobbying, litigation, advocacy, and education.

The ACLU of Pennsylvania represents over 100,000 members and supporters throughout the commonwealth with over 1.8 million ACLU members nationwide.

No matter the legislative session, our issue priorities always align with the core values and constitutional protections the American Civil Liberties Union has been defending for over 100 years:

- First Amendment rights to freedom of speech, association and assembly, freedom of the press, and freedom of religion;
- Right to equal protection under the law and protection against unlawful discrimination;
- Right to due process and fair treatment by the government when the loss of your liberty is at stake;
- Right to privacy and freedom from unwarranted government intrusion into your personal affairs.

While we always strive to partner with legislators on common priorities, our collaboration with members is not limited to perfect alignment on a particular issue or bill. The ACLU-PA can provide valuable support for interested members, staff, committees, and/or caucuses in a variety of ways. A summary of those resources is enclosed.

We look forward to meeting you (virtually or in person) soon!
