24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Resisting arrest, a person is

1 guilty of that if, with the intent to preventing a
2 public servant from effecting a lawful arrest or 3 discharging any duty, a person creates a risk of 4 bodily injury to the public servant or anyone else,
5 or employs means justifying or requiring substantial
6 force to overcome the resistance. Do you understand?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Paraphernalia. A person is guilty
9 of that if they use, possess with intent to use any 10 drug paraphernalia for the purpose of planting,
11 propagating, cultivating, injecting, ingesting,
12 inhaling or otherwise introducing into the human body
13 a controlled substance.

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Do you understand?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

17 THE COURT: All right. Possession of a
18 controlled substance, in this case heroin. Do you
19 understand?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

21 THE COURT: And paraphernalia, the same that
22 I've already defined. Do you understand?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yeah.

24 THE COURT: Yes?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

1 THE COURT: All right. You are also charged
2 with driving under the influence of a controlled
3 substance, in this case graded as a misdemeanor of 4 the first degree. Do you understand that?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

6 THE COURT: And driving while your license is
7 suspended, DUI related. Do you understand?

8 (Discussion held off the record.)

9 MS. SPOTTS: He's concerned that he has to 10 spend more time in Lancaster County Prison. I've 11 explained to him that all of these charges are 12 running together and he will be eligible to the state
13 prison.

14 THE COURT: Yes. All of these are concurrent,
15 so the aggregate sentence is going to be, what, two 16 to four? One? Two to four years?

17 MS. SPOTTS: Yes.

18 THE COURT: All right. You understand that?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Each one of these offenses has a
21 maximum. The possession with intent to deliver, 15
22 years and a $250,000 fine. The resisting arrest, two 23 years and a $5,000 fine. Possession of 24 paraphernalia, one year and a $2500 fine. Driving
25 under the influence, a misdemeanor 1, five years and

1 a $5,000 fine. Driving under suspension, six months
2 and a $1,000 fine; and possession, one year and $2500
3 fine.

4 If all of these were sentenced consecutively,
5 you would be looking at 25 years and six months and 6 $267,500. Do you understand that?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

8 THE COURT: I have a guilty plea colloquy form
9 here, Mr. Ford, that has seven pages and 77
10 paragraphs. Have you reviewed this document with 11 your lawyer?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

13 THE COURT: And you signed it?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Do you have any questions of her
16 or me with regard to this?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Just RRRI and that's it.

18 MS. SPOTTS: He wants to know if you have any 19 questions about that paperwork.

20 THE COURT: Any questions about this colloquy
21 form?

22 THE DEFENDANT: No.

23 THE COURT: Counsel, are you satisfied that 24 your client is making a knowing, voluntary and 25 intelligent decision here today?

1 MS. SPOTTS: I am, Your Honor. I've had lots
2 of discussions with him, and this is what he wants.

3 THE COURT: All right. May I have the facts,
4 please?

5 MS. BLAZIER: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 On Docket Number 1443 of 2016, on March 18th,
7 2016, the defendant did feloniously possess with the 8 intent to deliver approximately 159 bags of heroin,
9 heroin being a controlled substance included in 10 Schedule I. Said offense occurred at 10 Newport
11 Road, Leola, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.

12 After being advised that the defendant was 13 under arrest, the defendant had to be chased down,
14 and then after being caught and taken to the ground,
15 the defendant refused to put his hands behind his 16 back, causing both detectives to use substantial
17 force to place his hands behind his back. Said
18 offense occurred at the same location. And the 19 defendant also had in his possession a digital scale
20 and syringes.

21 On Docket Number 1496 of 2016, on July 14th,
22 2015, the defendant did drive or operate or was in 23 actual physical control of a vehicle while having 24 amphetamine and cocaine, Schedule II drugs, in his 25 system.

1 He also drove and operated or was in actual
2 physical control of a vehicle with heroin and cocaine
3 in his system, and these offenses occurred in the 4 area of 2288 New Holland Pike, East Lampeter
5 Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.

6 And on Docket 2530 of 2016, on April 21st,
7 2016, the defendant was in possession of a packet of 8 heroin, said substance being a Schedule I of the 9 Controlled Substance Act, and he was not authorized
10 to be in possession of that controlled substance, and 11 he also was in possession of a syringe with a needle.
12 Those offenses occurred at 148 West Main Street,
13 Leola, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.

14 THE COURT: Are all of those facts correct,
15 Mr. Ford?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

17 THE COURT: All right. The sentencing
18 guidelines, because of a prior record score of five,
19 on a possession with intent to deliver, call for 24
20 to 30 months, plus or minus six months; resisting
21 arrest, one to nine months, plus or minus three
22 months; paraphernalia, probation to five months, plus
23 or minus three months; possession, six to 16 months,
24 plus or minus three months; the driving under the 25 influence, a misdemeanor 1, 12 to 18 months, plus or

1 minus three months.

2 Do you understand that, sir?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

4 THE COURT: Counsel?

5 MS. SPOTTS: Your Honor, the only thing I'd 6 like to add in his behalf is Mr. Ford actually is 7 requesting an expedited guilty plea. He has been in 8 jail for approximately two months. He was picked up
9 on a bench warrant. That's actually how the drug
10 charges were a result, and a bench warrant for the 11 DUI, and he was picked up on that.

12 He reports that he is a serious heroin addict,
13 but he also has serious mental illness. He reports
14 that he's diagnosed with bipolar and schizophrenia.
15 It's certainly my experience with him, I would
16 believe that would be accurate.

17 I would ask that the Court accept the guilty
18 plea. I would also ask that the Court make him
19 eligible for any mental health treatment that is 20 deemed necessary.

21 Also, Mr. Ford is requesting RRRI. In 22 reviewing his prior record, there's actually very 23 little there. He has a Felony 2 burglary back in 24 the '90s, that was a business, which would not make 25 him ineligible.

1 THE COURT: Mr. Ford, you have the right to
2 make a statement. Anything you'd like so to say,
3 sir?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. I went to administration
5 to request, and they said you had the power or 6 authority to ask them to get me upstate sooner. I
7 have behavioral issues and mental health issues. I'm 8 trying my best to stay out of trouble in that jail.
9 I'm just involved in a program to do what I can to 10 come home.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Ford, I can put on the 12 sentencing sheet that you are to be sent up there as 13 promptly as possible, but beyond that, that's the 14 best I can do.

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, that's fine. She said
16 she would make an attempt to call, and I don't know.

17 MS. SPOTTS: I told him that I would contact
18 the board, because I know they are anxious for him to 19 move up.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Just put on the sentencing
21 sheet, please, that the defendant's transportation to 22 the SCI should be expedited.

23 THE DEFENDANT: I appreciate that, Your Honor.
24 And then also I ask for RRRI. I heard that if you
25 don't get in any trouble up there and do your classes

1 that you're eligible to come home a little early.

2 THE COURT: Well, you are. Is there anything
3 to suggest that he's not eligible for RRRI?

4 MS. SPOTTS: No, there isn't.

5 THE COURT: All right. On the two to four
6 years he is eligible for RRRI of 18 months, and on 7 ~~the one to four years he's entitled to nine months on~~
8 ~~the one to four.~~ But basically it's 18 months for 9 RRRI. Do you understand that?

10 THE DEFENDANT: I got to do 18?

11 THE COURT: Yes.

12 THE DEFENDANT: That's good.

13 THE COURT: Plus credit for any time served.

14 THE DEFENDANT: I appreciate it.

15 THE COURT: All right. I will accept the plea
16 agreements as proposed, find the defendant guilty on 17 all charges.

18 The defendant is sentenced in accordance with 19 the plea agreement as outlined by the Assistant
20 District Attorney, and all of the conditions as 21 outlined are also imposed. And he is made eligible
22 for any and all programs that would otherwise be 23 available for him in the State Correctional 24 Institution facility, including drug and alcohol,
25 mental health. Specifically mental health treatment,

1 as deemed necessary.

2 THE DEFENDANT: One more question.

3 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

4 THE DEFENDANT: Do you think I was better off
5 going on an open plea or taking a plea bargain?

6 THE COURT: That's a good question, Mr. Ford.
7 I think you got a good deal here.

8 THE DEFENDANT: All right. Thank you.

9 THE COURT: You know, I can reject this if 10 you'd like and I can just decide something else if 11 you'd want.

12 THE DEFENDANT: Depends what your answer is.
13 I don't know.

14 THE COURT: If you're shopping for a better
15 deal, it's not gonna happen, Mr. Ford. This is the 16 best deal you can get, and I think it's a good deal
17 for you to get the help that you need. Go up there
18 and participate. Try not to create any problems and 19 ask for help. If they prescribe medications,
20 Mr. Ford, take the medications.

21 THE DEFENDANT: All right.

22 THE COURT: Don't stop taking it when you
23 start feeling better.

24 THE DEFENDANT: All right.

25 THE COURT: Because that's when you get

1 yourself in trouble. All right?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yeah.

3 THE COURT: Yeah. All right, thank you.

4 THE DEFENDANT: Appreciate it.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
LANCASTER COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA
CRIMINAL DIVISION

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania	:
vs.	:	Nos. 2530-2016,
	:	1496-2016,
Christian Lee Ford	:	1443-2016

COMMONWEALTH'S ANSWER TO PETITIONER'S AMENDED PETITION FOR POST-CONVICTION RELIEF¹

AND NOW, comes the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, by and through Amara M. Riley, Assistant District Attorney, and respectfully offers the following answer to the Amended Petition for Post-Conviction Relief:

1. The instant Post-Conviction Relief Petition is without merit and should accordingly be dismissed.
2. As fully set forth below, since the Commonwealth and Petitioner previously "reached a specific sentencing agreement and the court...conducted a colloquy with the defendant regarding the terms of the agreement, the court cannot later modify the terms of the agreement without the consent of the Commonwealth;" by doing so, the court "would deny the Commonwealth the full benefit of the agreement which it reached with the defendant and the defendant, in turn, would receive a windfall.” Com. v. Townsend, 693 A.2d 980, 983 (Pa. Super. Ct. 1997).

3. Furthermore, and as also fully set forth below, the court imposed legal sentences on all three dockets and the Court is not required to conduct a hearing at the time fines and costs are imposed. Further, there exists no right to parole at the expiration of the minimum term. Finally, Petitioner’s attorney was not ineffective.

Brief Procedural History

4. On June 23, 2016, Christian Lee Ford (hereinafter, “Petitioner”) plead guilty before Your Honor to the each of the following Information Numbers: 1443-2016; 1496-2016; and 2530-2016.

5. The Petitioner plead guilty pursuant to three separate negotiated plea agreements on each of the three abovementioned dockets.

6. Each of the three negotiated plea agreements corresponding to the three abovementioned dockets specifically required the Petitioner to, among other things, pay fines and costs as part of the benefit of the bargain.²

² On Information Number 1443-2016, the Commonwealth specifically stated on the record at the time of the guilty plea that the Petitioner would pay a total of $100 in fines plus costs. (Notes of Guilty Plea, June 23, 2016 (hereinafter, “N.G.P.”), at 2.) See also, Plea Agreement for Information Number 1443-2016. This Plea Agreement, which was made part of the record and included by the Petitioner in his PCRA Petition, clearly stated that the Petitioner was to pay fines and costs and was signed and dated by the Petitioner.

On Information Number 1496-2016, the Commonwealth specifically stated on the record at the time of the guilty plea that the Petitioner would pay a total of $2,500 in fines plus costs. (N.G.P., at 3.) See also, Plea Agreement for Information Number 1496-2016. This Plea Agreement, which

7. The negotiated plea agreements for each of the abovementioned dockets, which were made part of the record and included by the Petitioner in his PCRA Petition, clearly stated that the Petitioner was to pay fines and costs.³ Each of these negotiated plea agreements was signed and dated by the Petitioner before they were made part of the record.⁴

8. In addition, the Commonwealth specifically stated on the record at the time of the guilty plea for each of the abovementioned dockets, in the presence of the Petitioner, that the Petitioner would pay fines and costs on each docket as part of the negotiated plea agreement.⁵

9. Further, at the time the Petitioner plead guilty to each of the abovementioned dockets, Your Honor conducted a thorough verbal colloquy with him on the record. (N.G.P., 4-8.) Your Honor also confirmed that the Petitioner had executed a 7-page, 77-paragraph written Guilty Plea Colloquy and Post-Sentence Rights Form with counsel. (N.G.P., 8.)

was made part of the record and included by the Petitioner in his PCRA Petition, clearly stated that the Petitioner was to pay fines and costs and was signed and dated by the Petitioner.

On Information Number 2530-2016, the Commonwealth specifically stated on the record at the time of the guilty plea that the Petitioner would pay a total of $100 in fines plus costs. (N.G.P., at 3.) See also, Plea Agreement for Information Number 2530-2016. This Plea Agreement, which was made part of the record and included by the Petitioner in his PCRA Petition, clearly stated that the Petitioner was to pay fines and costs and was signed and dated by the Petitioner.

10. When given the opportunity to address any questions or concerns he may have had at the time of his guilty pleas, the Petitioner notably did not raise any issue with payment of fines or court costs,⁶ despite the fact that he was aware that he would be subject to incarceration for a period of 1-4 years in a state correctional facility on Information Number 1496-2016 as well as a period of 2-4 years in a state correctional facility on Information Number 1443-2016. (N.G.P., 1, 3). See also signed Plea Agreements for Information Numbers 1496-2016 and 1443-2016.

Argument

The Court Cannot Modify the Terms of a Negotiated Plea Agreement Without Consent of the Commonwealth

11. As is long established and clearly noted by the Superior Court of Pennsylvania:

Plea bargaining is a vital aide [sic] to the effectuation of criminal justice...If either party to a negotiated plea agreement believed the other side could, at any time following entry of sentence, approach the judge and have the sentence unilaterally altered, neither the Commonwealth nor any defendant would be willing to enter into such an agreement...[T]he Commonwealth cannot violate the conditions of its bargain... nor should the court permit the defendant to do so.

Com. v. Coles, 530 A.2d 453, 458 (1987) (internal citations omitted) (emphasis added).

Furthermore:

⁶ When asked if he had any questions, the Petitioner only raised questions concerning RRRI (N.G.P., 8, 12-13).

[W]here the parties have reached a specific sentencing agreement and the court has conducted a colloquy with the defendant regarding the terms of the agreement, the court cannot later modify the terms of the agreement without the consent of the Commonwealth. In effect, this would deny the Commonwealth the full benefit of the agreement which it reached with the defendant and the defendant, in turn, would receive a windfall.

Com. v. Townsend, 693 A.2d 980, 983 (Pa. Super. Ct. 1997) (internal citations omitted) (emphasis added).

12. On each of the three abovementioned dockets, “the parties... reached a specific sentencing agreement and the court... conducted a colloquy with the [Petitioner].” Townsend, at 983.

13. On each of the three abovementioned dockets, the Petitioner agreed to pay fines and costs as part of the benefit of the bargain for each of the three negotiated plea agreements. The fines and costs are part of the three negotiated plea agreements and are as significant as any other aspect of the three negotiated plea agreements, including but not limited to, the concurrency among the three dockets, time to be served in the state correctional facility, time to be served on probation, and any conditions imposed as a part of probation or parole.

14. As they are part of the negotiated plea agreements, the Commonwealth does not consent to the removal of the fines and/or costs, or any other portion of the negotiated plea agreements, from the terms of the negotiated plea agreements on the three abovementioned dockets.

15. As the “court cannot later modify the terms of the agreement without the consent of the Commonwealth,” Townsend, at 983, the Court cannot “vacate [Petitioner’s] sentence and reimpose sentence without assessment of fines or costs” as sought by Petitioner.⁷ To do so would “deny the Commonwealth the full benefit of the agreement which it reached with the defendant and the defendant, in turn, would receive a windfall.” Id.

16. Thus, as the Petitioner agreed to pay fines and costs on the abovementioned three dockets pursuant to three negotiated plea agreements, Petitioner’s PCRA Petition should be denied.

The Court Imposed Legal Sentences on All Three Dockets; the Court is Not Required to Conduct a Hearing at the Time Fines and Costs are Imposed

17. As explained by the Superior Court of Pennsylvania, “[t]he law does not require that appellant be pleased with the outcome of his decision to enter a plea of guilty: ‘All that is required is that [appellant’s] decision to plead guilty be knowingly, voluntarily and intelligently made.’” Com. v. Moser, 921 A.2d 526, 528-529 (Pa. Super. Ct. 2007) (internal citations omitted).

18. Moreover, “[a]fter a defendant has entered a plea of guilty, the only matters that may be raised on appeal are the jurisdiction of the court, the validity of the guilty plea, and the legality of sentence.” Com. v. Kinney, 777 A.2d 492, 493 (Pa. Super. Ct. 2001). Finally, “[w]hether a question implicates the legality of a sentence presents a pure question of law.” Com. v. Taylor, 104 A.3d 479, 489 (Pa. 2014).

19. In the instant case, Petitioner’s PCRA Petition raises a challenge only to the legality of the sentence. Specifically, Petitioner alleges that he “has been subjected to a sentence in excess of the lawful maximum, towit, the Court did not conduct a hearing or find facts related to Petitioner’s ability to pay the fines and costs imposed.”⁸ This argument is wholly without merit and in direct contravention of Pa.R.Crim.P. 706 and precedential caselaw.

20. In a case analogous to the instant one, the Superior Court of Pennsylvania clearly stated that “a hearing on ability to pay is not required at the time costs are imposed.” Com. v. Childs, 63 A.3d 323, 326 (Pa. Super. Ct. 2013) (internal citations omitted) (emphasis added). The Superior Court of Pennsylvania further clarified:

While Rule 706 [of the Pennsylvania Rules of Criminal Procedure] ‘permits a defendant to demonstrate financial inability either after a default hearing or when costs are initially ordered to be paid in installments,’ the Rule only requires such a hearing prior to any order directing incarceration for failure to pay the ordered costs.

⁸ See Petitioner’s PCRA Petition, at para. 8.

Id. (internal citations omitted) (emphasis in original).

21. In the instant case, there is no violation of Pa.R.Crim.P. 706. Specifically, there does not exist any “order directing incarceration for failure to pay the ordered costs,” Childs, at 326, and fines. Nor is there any indication that any such order may be forthcoming. Further, despite Petitioner’s unsupported claim that he is “unable to pay the fines and costs imposed,”⁹ there exists no allegation or evidence that the Petitioner has already defaulted or is presently defaulting in his payment of fines or court costs. Finally, Petitioner’s bald allegation that “[h]is inability to pay the fines and costs will prevent him from being paroled at his minimum, or prior to expiration of the maximum, and Petitioner is prejudiced thereby,”¹⁰ is to no avail as there is no right to parole at the expiration of the minimum term.

22. The Petitioner’s entire argument that he “has been subjected to a sentence in excess of the lawful maximum” is based on his incorrect assertion that “the Court did not conduct a hearing or find facts related to Petitioner’s ability to pay the fines and costs imposed.”¹¹ As this argument is wholly without merit, the Petitioner’s PCRA Petition should be dismissed.

⁹ See Petitioner’s PCRA Petition, at para. 7.

¹⁰ See Petitioner’s PCRA Petition, at para. 7.

¹¹ See Petitioner’s PCRA Petition, at para. 8.

There Exists No Right to Parole at the Expiration of the Minimum Term

23. As clarified by the Superior Court of Pennsylvania:

Prisoners are not automatically paroled at the expiration of their minimum sentence. They are merely eligible for parole at that time... the maximum sentence is the only portion of the sentence which has legal validity, and that the minimum sentence is merely an administrative notice by the court to the executive department, calling attention to the legislative policy that when a man's so-called minimum sentence is about to expire.

Com. ex. rel. Scasserra v. Baldi, 121 A.2d 899, 900 (Pa. Super. Ct. 1956) (internal citations omitted) (emphasis added).

The parole of a prisoner at the expiration of his minimum term is not a matter of right, it is a matter of grace and mercy and the granting, reinstatement and revocation of parole is within the exclusive jurisdiction of the Parole Board.

Com. v. ex. rel. Soudani v. Maroney, 188 A.2d 780, 781 (Pa. Super. Ct. 1963)

(internal citations omitted) (emphasis added).

24. In the instant case, there is no right to parole at the expiration of the minimum term. Furthermore, there exists no allegation or evidence that the Petitioner has approached his maximum term. Thus, Petitioner's PCRA Petition should be dismissed.

Petitioner's Attorney Was Not Ineffective

25. To “prevail on a claim alleging counsel's ineffectiveness under the PCRA, [Petitioner] must demonstrate (1) that the underlying claim is of arguable merit; (2) that counsel's course of conduct was without a reasonable basis designed to effectuate his client's interest; and (3) that he was prejudiced by counsel's ineffectiveness.” Com. v. Bracey, 795 A.2d 935, 942 (Pa. 2001). (internal citations omitted).

26. Petitioner asserts his attorney was “ineffective in failing to pursue a sentence modification or direct appeal from the unlawful sentence.”¹² This allegation will not be able to successfully comport with the abovementioned PCRA requirements.

27. As fully set forth above, this claim is without merit. The Petitioner plead guilty to three dockets pursuant to three negotiated guilty pleas. Petitioner's Attorney Patricia Spotts noted on the record at the time of the guilty plea that she “had lots of discussions with [Petitioner], and this is what he wants.” (N.G.P., at 9). There would be no reason for Attorney Spotts to “pursue a sentence modification or direct appeal” following the negotiated guilty pleas. As fully set forth above, the sentences were lawful. As the claim advanced by Petitioner is without arguable merit, he will be unable to successfully meet his burden and prevail on an ineffective assistance of counsel claim.

¹² See Petitioner's PCRA Petition, at para. 9.

28. Thus, as counsel was effective, Petitioner's PCRA Petition should be dismissed.

WHEREFORE, the Commonwealth respectfully requests that this Honorable Court DISMISS the instant PCRA action.

Respectfully submitted,
