

— KNOW — YOUR — RIGHTS

YOUR GENERAL RIGHTS WHEN INTERACTING WITH POLICE OR IMMIGRATION AGENTS

- Ask if you are free to leave. If the police officer or ICE says yes, calmly walk away.
- You have the right to remain silent, even if the officer has a warrant. If you wish to exercise that right, say so out loud.
- Anything you say – including sharing the country in which you were born, your immigration status, or your criminal history – can be used against you.
- You do not have to answer questions about where you were born, whether you are a U.S. citizen, or how you entered the country.
- If you are witnessing a concerning police or ICE interaction, you have a right to record from any public space, like a street or sidewalk, but be careful not to physically interfere.
